A Word From Rabbi Adrienne

Shalom to my Bnai Shalom family!

Many thanks for the incredibly warm welcome! When I drove up on my first day, I was surprised and touched by the fabulous sign in the parking lot and the welcome went on from there – balloons, bagels, coffee and biscotti in the office, dinner on Shabbat, cake at the annual meeting and more one-on-one greetings than I can count. It's been a delight to meet so many of you in the short time I've been here and I look forward to meeting all of the members of our community over the coming weeks and months.

Thank you for welcoming me into the Bnai Shalom mishpacha – the Bnai Shalom family. And what a wonderful family it is! I can already see that those things that attracted me to Bnai Shalom are indeed abundant here: caring for one another, acceptance of each of us on our individual journeys, a commitment to making the world a better place, the joy of learning, and happiness in being part of our community.

Although the High Holy Days may seem far off, they will come right on time in the Jewish calendar... in October, which is late for us in our Gregorian calendar. In August, we will begin our planning in earnest. As we plan, I hope you will share with me what you love and don't love about the holidays, as well as what your hopes and dreams are for the new year.

Chodesh Tov – Have a wonderful month!
